

PUB & BUNKHOUSE MANAGER

Tafarn yr Eagles, Penmachno

Salary: £30,000 per annum + incentive scheme

Full-time | Permanent

Community-Owned Business

Could you lead one of Eryri's most iconic community pubs into its next chapter?

Cynnal Bro Machno is seeking an enthusiastic, hands-on Pub & Bunkhouse Manager to lead the day-to-day operation of Tafarn yr Eagles Pub, Penmachno, from September 2026 as it enters an exciting new era of community ownership.

Located in the heart of Bro Machno within Eryri National Park, The Eagles is much more than a pub. It is a vital community hub, Welsh-language social space, and visitor destination, featuring a traditional pub and a 25-bed bunkhouse.

What You'll Do

- Lead pub and bunkhouse operations
- Deliver exceptional customer and guest experiences
- Manage staff, volunteers, stock, budgets and bookings
- Support community events and local partnerships
- Help grow the business while protecting its community values
- Champion the Welsh language and local culture
- Act as Designated Premises Supervisor and ensure compliance standards are met

We're Looking For Someone Who Has:

- Hospitality management experience
- Strong leadership and organisational skills
- Excellent customer service and communication abilities
- Financial and operational management experience
- Welsh language skills (fluent preferred, or a commitment to achieve fluency)
- A passion for community, sustainability and rural hospitality

We Offer

- ✓ £30,000 salary plus incentive scheme
- ✓ Optional 3% pension contribution
- ✓ 28 days annual leave (including bank holidays)
- ✓ The opportunity to shape the future of a landmark community-owned business in Eryri
